Preparatory Study 4: National & International Employers

Part 1 (National Employers):

- List ten national employers, providing name and location (full address not required).
(Try to keep each employer in a separate category from the others. However this may be difficult, since larger employers may have many departments.)
- Indicate whether they are indigenous or foreign multinationals.
- 5 of the businesses should be high-technology global operations.

Part 2 (Nature of Employment):

- For two of the chosen five employers above:
  - List one job in the business and briefly state what qualifications you think are required.
  - Whether you think you are qualified for that job, and whether you think you would enjoy that job.
  - What duties are performed by someone doing that job?
  - What are the opportunities for travel with the company?

Part 3 (Hi-technology Global):

- List five global “high-tech” employers who have operations in Ireland, listed in Part 1. (Try to include two operating systems 'manufacturers').
- For each organisation – who should not have been covered by any prior assignment – list the main business(es) of the corporation, their global geographical spread, their relative position in the global market (e.g. Leader, former leader).

Part 4:

- For one of the five corporations above:
  - Does the organisation have a work experience or intern programme?
  - Outline some details of that programme (e.g. Duration etc.)
  - Identify one job in the company
  - State the likely qualifications required for the job
  - Indicate the course(s) that would lead to one of those qualification(s)
  - Identify how to get onto one of those courses from your current course, using the HELS
  - Identify the points and qualifications available from your course to qualify for the HELS
  - What that job typically entails and might pay
  - Prospects for travel in the selected job.

Guidelines

- The completed assignment should not exceed 3 A4 pages, including cover.
- The assignment should use the standard cover sheet, and be standard formatted
- An html copy using the standard style-sheet should be uploaded to your web account. The file should be saved in ~/public_html/workexperience/preparatory04.html
- The hard copy assignment should be submitted using the submission box in Room 15; please ensure the assignment is stamped and dated first.
- The deadline for this assignment is: 12:45, Friday, 24-10-2014
